

The Bulletin.Commercial.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 9, 1871.
The general market remains about the same as at our last review. Business is quite as brisk as in neighboring cities, and our merchants are well satisfied with the condition of the market.

The opening tobacco sale in this market on Tuesday last was a complete success in every respect. A number of foreign and many home buyers were present and competition was spirited. Thirty-six hds were sold, and there was only one rejection. Comparison of the prices given below with prices in other markets, will show that the Cairo market compares favorably with the best. Our tobacco merchants have secured the services of experienced tobacco men, and the ability to back their determination to make the Cairo market the market of the Lower Mississippi, combined with the great advantages offered to both buyers and sellers, must compel the speedy recognition of the claims of Cairo over any contiguous market. Sales were as follows:
